Remember, WRO will provide:

- Canoes
- Paddles
- PFD (Personal Flotation Device)
- All meals

You'll need to consider bringing at least the following:

There's a big difference between camping in April in Wisconsin and camping in July - check the weather and be prepared!

- PLEASE, absolutely no glass on the River!
- Sleeping Bag - available if you don't own one
- Sunscreen
- Tent - available if you don't own one
- An Insulated coffee mug, preferably plastic, for your beverages
- Dry bag - available for rent and for sale – for environmental reasons we prefer you don't use garbage bags and THEY DON'T WORK
- Comfortable outdoor leisure clothes, consider: warm shirt (like fleece), rain gear and hat and cotton long sleeve shirt that you can let get dirty that protects you from the sun (pack SMART, don't over pack - you're only on the river a night or two, you're not trekking the Andes;-)
- Sandals or other fast drying footwear – you'll go barefoot most of the trip
- Towel
- Camp chairs
- Sunscreen
- Personal hygiene items
- Football or sand toys
- Drinking water/beverages for lunch and dinner - remember, no glass – we provide morning beverages
- Snacks for between meals
- Sunscreen
- Mosquito repellent
- Sun glasses
- Camera
- Did we mention...Sunscreen?

Providing safe, enjoyable trips for groups of all ages and abilities.
